CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION

OF THE

Vancouver Island Land and Investment Company,
Limited Liability.

1. The name of the Company is "The Vancouver Island Land and Investment Company, Limited Liability."
2. The registered office of the Company will be situate in the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia.
3. The objects for which the Company is established are as follows:—
 - (1.) To purchase or otherwise acquire the real estate, financial and insurance brokerage business of Francis

Bourchier and Henry Croft, now carried on at the said City of Victoria and elsewhere, and all or any of the real and personal property belonging to the said Bourchier and Croft in connection with the said business, and to undertake all or any of the liabilities of the said Bourchier and Croft in relation to such business.

(2.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company.

(3.) To carry on all or any of the businesses usually carried on by land companies in all their several branches, and in particular to lay out and improve, alter and develop by draining, clearing, road-making or otherwise, any property of the Company, and thereon to erect and construct, or assist in the erection or construction of any buildings or works whatsoever, and to pull down, alter and rebuild any existing erections or buildings required by the Company.

(4.) To negotiate loans of all kinds.

(5.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, on such terms and in such manner as the regulations of the Company from time to time provide, any shares in the Company's capital.

(6.) To purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any land, buildings and easements.

(7.) To sell the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other Company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company.

(8.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether, or in part, similar to those of this Company.

(9.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie, but that so no distribution amounting to a reduction of the capital be made without the sanction of some Court of competent jurisdiction.

(10.) To make, accept, indorse and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other negotiable instruments.

(11.) To invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities as may from time to time be determined.

(12.) To lend money, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company.

(13.) To raise money in such other manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of the debentures charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital.

(14.) To carry on the business of a commission agent and an estate agent in all or any of their respective branches.

(15.) To buy and sell, either on its own account or upon commission, mining, railway, tramway, and any and all other kinds of stocks, debentures and securities, all kind of real and personal property movable and immovable.

(16.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, settle and improve lands and hereditaments in the Province of British Columbia or any other Province or Territory of Canada, or in any one or more of the States of the United States of America.

(17.) To develop the resources of the same lands and hereditaments by building, planting, clearing, mining and otherwise opening up and dealing with the same.

(18.) To take concessions of or lease railways or other undertakings, whether Canadian or foreign, and either construct or otherwise carry out the same itself, or make them over wholly or partly to other companies or persons.

(19.) Generally to transact any business of a merchant or capitalist, either as principal or agent.

(20.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

4. The liabilities of the members is limited.

5. The capital of the Company is $250,000, divided into 2,500 shares of $100 each.

6. Three Trustees, namely, Francis Bourchier, Henry Croft and Richard Brodrick shall manage the concerns of the Company for the first three months.

7. The time of the existence of the Company shall be fifty years.

We, the several persons whose names and addresses are subscribed, are desirous of being formed into a

Company, in pursuance of this Memorandum of Association, under the "Companies Act, 1890," and we respectively agree to take the number of shares in the capital of the Company set opposite our respective names.

Dated at Victoria, B. C., the 11th day of April, A.D. 1891.

MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION OF THE "OAK BAY IMPROVEMENT COMPANY, LIMITED LIABILITY."

1. The corporate name of the Company is "The Oak Bay Improvement Company, Limited Liability."

2. The objects for which the Company is formed are:—

(a.) To acquire, hold, manage and improve lands, heritages and real estates, and rights in lands and heritages in Victoria District and other parts of the Province of British Columbia; and to acquire and erect houses, buildings and works; to construct, acquire and lease roads, trams, wharves and jetties.

(b.) To purchase the goodwill or any interest in any trade or business of a character similar to any trade or business which the Company is authorized to carry on, and to sell or lease the business of the Company, or any part thereof, and any property of the Company, whether part of its original undertaking or not.

(c.) To lay out land for building, and to construct and maintain roads and streets, and to erect or advance money for the purpose of erecting dwelling houses, hotels, shops, stores, factories, mills, warehouses and every other description of building.

(d.) To sell, lease, alienate, or in any other manner to dispose of any of the lands, buildings, wharves or interests of the Company, whether in real or personal estate, at such times, and in such manner, and upon such terms as shall be deemed by the Company desirable.

(e.) To borrow or raise money by the issue of or upon bonds, debentures, debenture stock, bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other obligations or securities of the Company, or by mortgage or charge on all or any part of the real or personal property of the Company, or of its uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing debentures or otherwise; and any such mortgage or mortgages may be in favour of such person or persons as trustee or trustees or otherwise, with such powers as the Company shall think fit, and to make, accept, endorse and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments.

(f.) To purchase or acquire the undertakings of any Company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or to amalgamate with any such company, and for the purpose of such amalgamation to transfer the undertaking of this Company to the company or companies with which it is to be amalgamated, and to accept the transfer to this Company of the undertakings of any such Company.

(g.) To apply for, accept, take, acquire, hold or sell and to deal with shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, obligations and other securities of any company or association formed, or being formed, having objects altogether, or in part, similar to those of this Company, or such as may be likely to promote the interests of this Company, and to sell, dispose of and repurchase any such securities or shares.

(h.) To construct or aid in or to subscribe towards the construction, maintenance or improvement of railways, tramways, vessels, steamships, roads, bridges, reservoirs, wells, aqueducts, gas works, electrical works, telegraph and telephone lines, canals, water-courses, piers, wharves or other works.

(i.) To promote or contribute to any public or municipal works or undertakings for facilitating any of the purposes of the Company.

(j.) To sell the undertakings of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company shall think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company.

(k.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government, authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the objects of the Company, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges or concessions.

(l.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.

(m.) To hold any property hereditary, moveable or personal, and to transact business and to carry through any business or transaction in the name of either the Company itself, or in the name or names of the agents of the Company.

(n.) To do all other things that are conducive to attaining the objects of the Company, and which may be or become expedient for profitably using any property, work or security which may belong to the Company.

(o.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made without the sanction of the majority of the shareholders of the Company in a general or special meeting.

3. The capital stock of the Company shall be three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000), divided into 3,000 shares of $100 each.

4. The Trustees who shall manage the affairs of the Company for the first three months are:—Charles Thomas Dupont, John Edward Crane, William Dawson McGregor, Beaumont Boggs and Henry A. Munn.

5. The office and the principal place of business of the said Company shall be located at number 30, Broad Street, in the City of Victoria, or at such other places in the said City as shall from time to time be determined on by the said Company.

6. The time of the existence of the Company shall be fifty years from the 23rd day of March, A.D. 1891.

In witness whereof we, the above-named Charles Thomas Dupont, John Edward Crane, William Dawson McGregor, Beaumont Boggs, Henry A. Munn and Thomas John Hammill, have hereunto set our hands and seals the twenty-third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

THE ALBERTA AND BRITISH COLUMBIA EXPLORATION COMPANY, LIMITED, (FOREIGN).

REGISTERED THE 22ND DAY OF APRIL, 1891.

Certificate of Registration.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY that I have this day registered "The Alberta and British Columbia Exploration Company, Limited," (Foreign), under the "Companies Act," Part IV., "Registration of Foreign Companies."

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(1.) To apply for and obtain any legislative or other powers necessary for the construction, maintenance and working of any railway or railways, British, Colonial or foreign, and to negotiate for and endeavour to obtain conventions, charters, subsidies, grants, aids or other assistance in furtherance of such objects or incidental thereto.

(2.) To undertake the construction and establishment, and the management, maintenance and working of any such railway or railways, either itself or make thereof wholly or partly to other companies or persons.

(3.) To take contracts British, Colonial or foreign, and execute them either itself or by sub-contractor.

(4.) To undertake the liabilities of any company, association, partnership or person.

(5.) To aid any body politic or corporate, or company or association, or individuals with capital, credit, means or resources for the prosecution of any railways, works, undertakings, projects or enterprises.

(6.) To prosecute and execute, directly or by contributions or other assistance, any such or any other railways, works, undertakings, projects or enterprises in which, or for the prosecution whereof, or on the security whereof, or of any profits derivable therefrom, the Company shall have invested money or embarked capital.

(7.) To buy or otherwise acquire and sell in its own account or for a commission all kinds of property, real and personal, moveable and immovable, and to manage, develop, mortgage, sell, dispose of or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property of the Company as may seem expedient.

(8.) To take or otherwise acquire and dispose of shares, stock, debentures, bonds or other securities in any other company, British, Colonial or foreign, and to pay or agree to pay under any contract to be entered into by the Company, or for services rendered to such company or this Company, in cash or in such stocks, shares or debentures, or any part thereof.

(9.) To re-issue any stock, shares, debentures, bonds or other securities with or without the guarantee of the Company.

(10.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, settle, improve and cultivate lands and hereditaments, British, Colonial or foreign.

(11.) To purchase, hire, construct or manufacture any rolling stock, machinery or plant.

(12.) To develop the resources of any lands and hereditaments by building, planting, clearing, mining or otherwise dealing with the same, and to subscribe out of the funds of the Company towards any purpose calculated to improve or benefit such property.

(13.) To stock lands and to breed and deal in cattle of all kind, and produce and to colonize the same, and to aid and encourage emigration.

(14.) To make, provide, maintain and carry on, use and work, or contribute towards the making, providing, maintaining, carrying on using and working any such railway or railways as aforesaid, and also tramways, telegraph lines, canals, reservoirs, wells, aqueducts, roads, streets, piers, wharves and other works which may be deemed expedient for the purposes of the Company, or contract with others to do the same.

(15.) To promote or concur in promoting any company or corporation, whether British, Colonial or foreign, and to acquire, hold and dispose of shares, stocks or securities of any such company or corporation, and to pay the expenses of the promotion and underwriting the capital of any company or corporation so promoted.

(16.) To mortgage, with or without a power of sale, and otherwise deal with all or any of the property and rights of the Company, and to raise money in any manner which may be thought advisable, and partly by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, charged either in themselves or by a covering deed upon all or any part of the Company's property, and to lend money and to negotiate loans of every description.

(17.) To procure the capital for any company in any country, but particularly in England or Canada, for the purpose of carrying into effect any objects of any company formed for the purpose of agriculture, or for acquiring or working mines or collieries or other purposes, and to issue the capital of such companies and to subscribe for, purchase, dispose of and otherwise deal in the shares, bonds and securities of such companies.

(18.) To sell the undertaking of the Company, or any part or parts thereof, for such consideration as may be thought proper, whether payable wholly or partially in cash or in shares, stock or debentures or other securities of any other company, British, Colonial or foreign, now formed or hereafter to be formed, and to distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie.

(19.) To make, endorse, accept and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other negotiable instruments.

(20.) To exercise all or any of the power given by the "Companies (Incorporation) Act, 1861," and the "Companies (Colonial) Regulations Act, 1883."

(21.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, either as principals or agents, contractors or otherwise, and to procure, if thought necessary, the Company to be constituted or incorporated as a corporation, or its nearest equivalent, in any country or colony whatever.

(22.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the above object.

The capital of the Company is £20,000, divided into 200 shares of £100 each.

The place of business of the said Company in the Province of British Columbia is situated at 21 Bastion Street, Victoria, in the said Province of British Columbia.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal of office this 22nd day of April, 1891, at the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia.
